About the Program

Triangle Residential Options for Substance Abusers, Inc. (TROSA) is a nonprofit organization in Durham, North Carolina. TROSA’s mission is to help recovering drug and alcohol abusers change their lives through our comprehensive multi-year residential program. Key elements of TROSA’s Therapeutic Community program include: vocational training, peer counseling, mentoring, communication and leadership training, and education. TROSA also provides graduates with continuing care services to help them transition into the community after completing the program.

TROSA is unique in that it generates a majority of its operating funds through its vocational training programs such as moving, lawn care and custom framing. Though TROSA earns sustaining revenue this way, TROSA still relies on tax-deductible donations to help us maintain and expand our program.

TROSA was founded in 1994 and has provided services to thousands of men and women since its inception. Today, over 400 people are residents in our two-year program and over 100 are receiving services through our aftercare program.

We appreciate your interest in volunteering. You may return your application via email to trosa@trosainc.org or by mail or in person to:
